

April 1, 2015

The Black-Jew Dialogues is the perfect combination of great entertainment and powerful diversity awareness. The actors were not only high energy, but really engaged with the students in the audience, making it feel fresh and personal to my campus.

What really impressed me was how many students lingered after the show to meet and chat with the actors, who were more than willing to stick around. They just couldn't get enough!

Melinda C. Bullen
Diversity Resource Center Coordinator
Mt. Hood Community College

Mt. Hood Community College